

I'm Sorry

Lyrics by The Symbol

Hook:

I'm Sorry
I love you
I should have trust you
Oh no
She said I'm sorry
Believe me - I really wanna be with you

Verse 1:

The things of this world - have taken their toll
It feels like she's losing her soul
Through all her life
Pain struggles and strife
Adopted abused girl still Tryna walk in light
I'm Sorry I lost it - I should have trusted - but it's hard There's no excuses - she knew this She's just not used to receiving all this love
Her moms told her she wish she woulda abort her So sometimes she struggles with her own self worth pressing on - trying to be strong Caught up in her feelings her words come out all wrong and she says
Sorry I love you
I shoulda trust you - oh no
She said I'm sorry - please believe me when I say I really wanna be with you

(Hook)

Verse 2:

You done really crossed the line
I said you really crossed the line
There's a lot of things I put up with but you do this all the time way too grown for you to act like this and now you telling lies Maybe that girl was telling lies

And she got up in your mind
But still - I never have given reason to believe That I would just leave - or lie and just cheat
My family welcomed you in every way
I took you to church - I've led you to pray
I've given you every single part of me
Yeah I know your story - that's still not ok
I wanna forgive you I wanna forgive you
I said all of that - then I stopped and I thought
How many times have you forgiven me Lord?
And how many times do I put you back on the cross
How many sins do I confess then go and do them again
How many souls have been lef lost because of how I've witnessed
Is she telling the truth - telling the truth
I don't really know but Im trusting in you
I just cannot deal with all this about now
I need her to trust me - and watch her damn mouth
I'm tired of compromise tired of stress
I'm tired of drama and all of her mess
You know that I love her Lord - give me the strength
On the cross you forgave me now help me forgive

(Hook)

I know you're sorry
You know I love you
I need your trust too so we can now move on
I know you're sorry
Please now work with me
Give yourself completely and I'm truly with you
