

I know you've been waiting
For something new
So...

Please take these roses from me...
They're just for you
Please take these roses from me...
So you know it's true

Yeah... Something like that

I been kinda bitter lately - has nothing to do with you Thorns poke out from Something that is growing beautiful
I guess what Im Tryna say is...
I know I been rude to you
I just been kinda stressed out - roses the one thing suitable
To explain the pain I've felt - but this vessel is crucible Crucified life and you're the one who still sees it through
I love you - for 3 years now we been Pursuing truth
As one unit and this love hasn't seen funeral
Our mutual bond for sanctity is what pulls us through What we got's unusual without you don't know what I would do
Real talk. That's why I wrote this musical
It means more than some flowers this is my heart growing for you
In the beginning I wasn't ready to give in full
All of me - still had broken pieces but still you pursued
And Im glad you did - cuz I needed you
God still has plan for us 2
That's why I'm giving you roses

Please take these roses from me...
They're just for you
Please take these roses from me...
So you know it's true
Please take these roses from me...
My only one is you
Please take these roses from me...

So many songs called roses
Poems called roses
You're not worth a bouquet –
You're worth the whole rose bush
Matter of fact the whole garden
Doesn't suffice to show love
That I have for you
It's metaphor - no prose love
I know cuz of my past it seems like I oppose love it's just cuz I know its
More than emotions when I show love
Let commitment speak –
Be the chocolate box and roses
Let Christ help us figure it out cuz he knows us
See what happens
When you clip a flower before it grows up
Is it dies... It needs the grass sun and the water
It needs air to breathe ...
So while we grow our rose bush
Let's never forget
The sower of the seed who sowed us
If we don't then life just decomposes
Take it easy - walk through the garden
Smell the aroma
Some times we dance in rain and
Play with super soakers
And sometimes I might just buy you roses...
Yeah

Please take these roses from me...
They're just for you
Please take these roses from me...
So you know it's true
Please take these roses from me...
My only one is you
Please take these roses from me...
Oooh. Oooh.
