

"PEN STATION"

LYRICS BY: THE SYMBOL

Yo it uh... Kinda feels like Good Friday right now
As I... ride through these stations
'Nah Mean?...

Hook:

Grand Central
I be on my Pen Station (3x)
Tracks on my mind
All these tracks on my mind
(2x)

Verse 1:

Yeah I'm a rapper ...
But I don't listen to rap no more
The industry don't bring substance - and rappers don't rap no more
Too much unsigned hype - everybody with a Mac records
And please don't get me started with Iggy or Macklemore
Tracks flowing through my mind Penn station
The notes on my iPhone reaching limitations
Everyday the Lord speaks I think it's amazing
Songs be like psalms -
Lord make me the new David
I'm battling Goliath
These people here don't buy it
They bout to start a riot
Make me king - make me king
These rappers wanna shout
Never praise the king
I watch a movie write bars for him
Read a book there's another track for heaven
People telling me about church clothes 3
I'm like that's cool -
What that have to do with me?
I believe in Christian unity - but truthfully I'm doing me
John 21 verse 22,23

(Hook)

Verse 2:

Too many tracks my catalogue's Penn station
Mixtape, EP, no album still toured the nation
I go to mass and get lyrical inspiration
Cross the borders of the culture with faith
Call immigration
Radio stations
No they don't play us
But they try to play us
They mocking our faith cuz
The ads on the trains plus
Some Christians degrade us
Even other Catholic's say that
"They can not take us"
My people please wake up
I'm truly minority - even amongst minorities...
That's cool boy - keep ignoring me
Keep supporting wack-ness
And keep the poor in traps when
You keep supporting rappers
Who seek to glory themselves
I'm a rhyme all the way to demise
Until my tracks pass the count of MTA in NY
Why?...
This a grand central occasion
My pen game reflects the 14 stations

Lord.... No matter who I may cross paths with, may I endure every station of my own passion with you even as I ride this train may I be a reflection of you to others
